Reid Reveals Commercial Exhibit Record

Tractor-Pull Event, Band Festival On Opening Day Card

Henry Reid, secretary of the Pickaway County Agricultural Society, said today that the big 1956 county fair will open tomorrow with "more entries and more enthusiasm than we've ever had before."

With the aid of good weather, he added, this year's exhibition should "draw an attendance increase that we'll be proud of." Top attraction on the opening day program will be the tractor-pulling contest, which begins at 10 a. m. Livestock judging also starts early.

Big highlight Wednesday evening will be a 2 1/2 hour show presented by nearly a dozen high school bands from all over this part of the state. The ever-popular band and music festival begins at 7:30 p. m.

The Pickaway County fairgrounds are located on Route 22 at the city's eastern edge.

REID said one illustration of the big list of exhibits this year is seen in the coliseum, which became so crowded that the displays overflowed into tents erected alongside the building. This year's fair has more commercial exhibits than any similar event here, the fair board secretary said.

The 1956 fair will put special accent on the feminine interest, many attractions being added especially for women. One of these is an apple pie contest, to be run daily.

Also dominating the fair will be the traditional spotlight on 4-H and FFA exhibits, and on the harness racing scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday evening. Between each of the sulky races, youngsters will have an opportunity to scramble for greased pigs—the prizes to be the pigs themselves.

Another new attraction on this year's program will be a parade that will move, Thursday evening, from Circleville to the fairgrounds. The parade, set to start at 7 p. m. sharp, is being sponsored by the fair board and county implement dealers, assisted by the Circleville Jaycees.

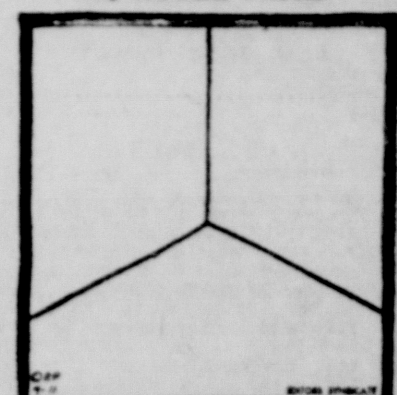

Prominent again in the Wednesday evening band festival will be the marching bands of Circleville High School and the Ashville-Harrison School. Ashville's band has arranged a tribute that evening for the late John Philip Sousa, America's famed "march king."

DROODLES

By ROGER PRICE

"LITTLE JACK HORNER OUT TO LUNCH"

Dr. Schwine was so tickled by this Doodle he gave me permission to reprint a couple more of his famous Father Goose rhymes that he is planning to put into book form for people in their second childhood. For instances: "OLD MOTHER WHEEZER WENT TO THE FREEZER, TO GET HER POOR DOG A STEAK. BUT WHEN SHE GOT THERE, THE FREEZER WAS BARE. SO SHE SAID 'LET HIM EAT CAKE.'" Here's another example: "THERE WAS AN OLD WOMAN WHO LIVED IN A SHOE, SHE HAD SO MANY CHILDREN SHE DIDN'T KNOW WHAT TO DO. BUT NOW SHE'S LOADED AND HERE'S THE SWITCH. SHE HIT THE JACKPOT ON 'STRIKE IT RICH.'" There's a lot more of these rhymes but I think I'll save them for a future date. Like 1956.

Egypt Given Warning From London Parley

English Spokesman Says Canal Dispute To Go To U. N. First

LONDON (AP)—Britain and France warned Egypt today they are ready to use force if necessary to protect their rights in the Suez Canal.

A high political source said, however, Britain would lay the Suez dispute before the United Nations as the next step toward a solution.

A communique issued by British Prime Minister Eden and French Premier Guy Mollet said they are determined "to resist by all appropriate means any arbitrary interference with rights under international agreements" in the Suez crisis.

Winding up two days of emergency talks, they declared themselves in full agreement on "further measures to be taken" in the light of Egypt's refusal to negotiate an international system for operating the canal.

These "further measures" were not spelled out.

A FOREIGN Office spokesman said, however, the measures will be disclosed in the British House of Commons, which meets in emergency session Wednesday and Thursday.

Just before the communiqué was issued a high British political informant said the E. M. government had definitely decided to place the Suez dispute before the United Nations, but was still considering in what form this should be done.

The communique referred to the U. N. only in this statement: "The ministers recalled that from the outset their governments acted in full conformity with the purposes and principles of the United Nations."

1,000 Cheer For Ouster Of Gov. Chandler

MORGANFIELD, Ky. (AP)—A cheering, feet-stamping throng of more than 1,000 persons Monday night shouted approval of proposals to impeach Gov. A. B. Chandler and form a states rights party of Kentucky.

Scene of the roaring demonstration was the courthouse in this Union County seat, a scant 11 miles from Sturgis where desegregation at Sturgis High School has been opposed with mob force. Some 500 persons, farmers, miners and others, packed the courthouse rooms and yelled their approval of a resolution proposing to impeach Gov. Chandler for assuming "dictatorial powers." A din also arose from hundreds more listening to loudspeakers outside the building.

The resolution came from Jack Kershaw of Nashville, Tenn., vice president of the Tennessee Federation for Constitutional Government. He was joined in leading the meeting by Jerry Waller of Morganfield, president of the recently formed Union County White Citizens Council.

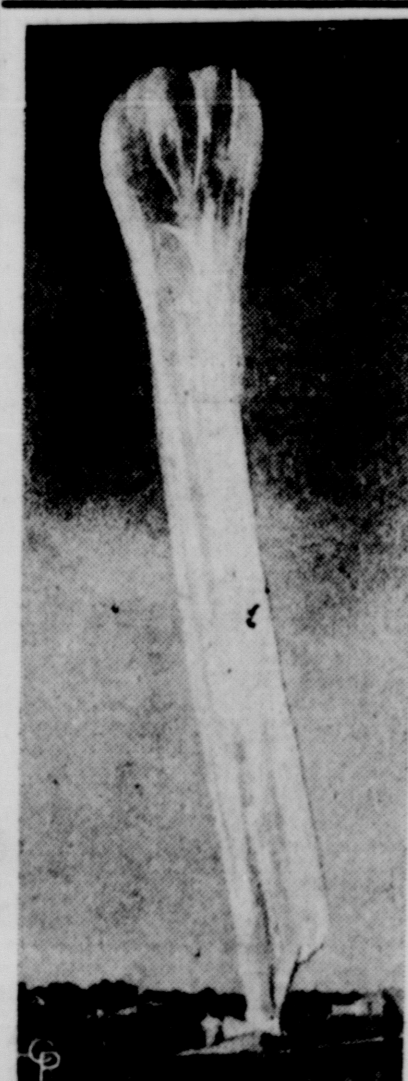

Kershaw attacked Chandler for sending National Guardsmen to Sturgis when, he said, they were not requested by local authorities. Sturgis is in Union County. Kershaw urged his listeners to fill out petitions to form a Kentucky states rights party.

Bell Walkout Lasts Briefly

Union Chief's Order Obeyed In Akron

CLEVELAND (AP)—A brief walkout was staged by 350 Ohio Bell Telephone Co. employees at Akron today as negotiators for the company and the Communications Workers of America continued their efforts here to reach a contract agreement.

They returned to their jobs shortly after noon, complying with a back-to-work order issued here by Thomas S. Mitchell, state director of the CWA, and relayed by Jack Lloyd, president of the union's Akron Local 4302. More than 150 installers, repairmen and garage employees failed to report for work at Akron this morning. A few hours later an undetermined number of business office employees walked out. Switchboard operators remained on the job. No picket lines were established immediately. Ohio Bell employs 1,600 in the Akron area.

Acreage Reserve Applications Open

The Pickaway County ASC Office is now ready to complete applications for acreage reserve under the 1957 Wheat Acreage Reserve Agreement.

Pickaway County has been allocated $253,100. This will be given out on the basis of "first come, first served." The closing date for completing application will be September 21. However, should this allocation be used up before this date, persons making application will not be accepted.

Farmers interested in 1957 Wheat Acreage Reserve should keep in mind that it will be necessary for those putting acres in reserve to comply with the 1957 Corn Allotment or Soil Bank Base which ever the case may be, in order to receive payment under the Wheat Acreage Reserve Agreement.

The county ASC office is open Monday through Friday from 8 to 5.

Beer Said To Aid Heart Upset Cases

NEW YORK (AP)—A Swedish doctor says beer is good medicine for victims of high blood pressure or heart disease.

Dr. Bertil Josephson said the beverage is beneficial for heart patients because it not only helps get rid of excess water in their tissues but also cheers them.

Josephson said the kidneys of heart patients partly lose ability to excrete salt. The body retains water to keep the salt properly diluted and grows puffer and puffier. Beer helps the body pass off the water and the salt. But Josephson emphasized that beer does not cure the underlying heart disease.

News In Brief Weather Plane Still Missing

TOKYO (AP)—Skies cleared today over the typhoon-whipped waters of the Japan sea, but search planes and ships still reported no trace of an American weather-scouting plane that disappeared at the height of the storm's fury.

Sixteen U. S. Air Force men were aboard the missing plane, sent out Monday to measure wind velocity and air pressure inside typhoon Emma, a killer storm that took 55 lives and caused millions of dollars damage in Japan, Okinawa, South Korea and the Philippines.

The four-engine RB50, a reconnaissance version of the Air Force B50 bomber, was last heard from halfway between the coasts of Japan and Soviet Siberia.

"It is presumed down in the Sea of Japan, but the searches so far have found nothing," a U. S. Air Force spokesman said.

The weather plane's job was to enter the eye of the typhoon and drop automatic data-collecting instruments to determine the storm's course.

BONN, Germany (AP)—Former Grand Adm. Karl Doenitz, Nazi Germany's last fuhrer, will be released from Spandau Prison on Oct. 1, allied officials said today. Doenitz, 64, is one of the five top Nazi war criminals held under four-power control in the big Berlin prison. His 10-year sentence expires next month. Allied authorities said Doenitz is in poor health. He was named by Hitler as his successor just before the Third Reich collapsed.

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Police today announced the arrest of 20 persons and charged they were members of a ring that had been smuggling narcotics into Formosa since 1949. Authorities said the ring brought in narcotics by sea and air from Japan and Hong Kong.

Wilmington Seeks Limit On Pickets

WILMINGTON (AP)—A court order limiting pickets to two per gate at the strikebound Wilmington Casting Co. was issued Monday by Clinton County Common Pleas Judge Charles R. Kirk.

The order also bars strikers from interfering with entry or exit from the plant. The strike of United Auto Workers started last Aug. 29 after union officials said they had been unable to reach agreement with the company on several issues.

Troops Alert For Trouble In School Fuss

National Guardsmen Reinforced For Duty In Kentucky Dispute

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS National guardsmen, strengthened by reinforcements, were standing by again today in Sturgis, Ky., scene of noisy racial disorders at the town's integrated high school.

A National Guard detachment of 650 men, backed by tanks and 40 state patrolmen, were on hand Monday to see that seven Negroes were allowed to enter classes for which 310 white pupils were enrolled.

A crowd of between 600 and 1,000 persons jeered and catcalled the guardsmen, spaced three feet apart on the high school lawn.

Only 45 of the school's white pupils were at their desks when the final assembly bell rang.

Members of the crowd cried out that the white pupils would "never come back" and turbulent anti-integrationists declared they would keep their children "out of Sturgis High School forever if necessary."

When the Negroes left the building, rocks were hurled. The Negroes sped home in automobiles.

Sturgis is the center of an area with a population of about 5,000, including 1,000 Negroes. The tension there was in strong contrast to the situation at Louisville, Ky., where the South's first large-scale school integration was carried out peacefully and with no untoward incident Monday.

Louisville, a city of almost 400,000, has a school population of 47,000, one third of them Negroes. Officials estimate that 2,810 Negroes will attend previously all-white schools this fall.

70 Nations At Parley Of Methodists

LAKE JUNALUSKA, N. C. (AP)—When Methodists from many lands get together, there's a mixed flavor to the proceedings.

Some are solemn and stirring in their reverence, some problematical, some in a light mood.

"We don't all approach things in precisely the same manner," said the Dr. Howard P. Buxton of Des Moines. "But we learn from one another, and the end result is rather universal agreement."

This global Methodist meeting, including about 2,000 delegates from 70 nations, has been going on for 10 days, and in that time, there's been an average of about six addresses every day.

Delegates heard several addresses.

Ohio GOP Studies Proposal For Civil Rights Commission

COLUMBUS (AP)—Planks pledging financial help for local governments and a roadbuilding speedup were being drafted today while the Ohio Republican platform committee headed into a civil rights tussle.

The local government plank appeared headed toward a pledge for "stabilized" and increased financial aid from the state.

Sources close to the committee said the speedup part of the highway plank was agreed, but there still were rural-urban differences over whether cities should be required to pay 5 per cent or 10 on expressway projects falling

Maine Swing To Democrats Overshadows Other Polls

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Eight states hold primaries today, but they were largely overshadowed in advance by the powerful Democratic showing in Maine's election Monday.

Gov. Edmund S. Muskie, more than doubling his 1954 margin of victory, won a second term, almost unprecedented for a Democrat in strongly Republican Maine.

Adlai Stevenson said the victory indicates that the national trend to the Democrats is still gaining momentum.

Muskie won his second term with the biggest vote ever given a Maine governor of either party.

And, for the first time since the New Deal year of 1934, a Democrat was elected to Congress from Maine. He is Frank M. Coffin, 37, Lewiston lawyer and chairman of his party's state committee.

Stevenson's presidential campaign manager, James Finnegan, said the Maine vote was "all the more remarkable in view of the way the Republicans made this a test of President Eisenhower's influence with the voters."

Parties Told To Give Tally On Finances

WASHINGTON (AP)—Both of the nation's big political parties Monday got notice that a watchdog Senate Elections subcommittee will demand a weekly accounting of campaign expenditures between now and election day.

Chairman Gore (D-Tenn.) made the announcement as the subcommittee opened its investigation of financing and other practices of the presidential-year campaigns.

Republican National Chairman Leonard Hall told the group the GOP has $664,000 in the bank. His Democratic counterpart, Paul M. Butler, said the Democrats have $35,600 and unpaid bills exceeding that amount by $14,000.

Automobile Bumper Brings Mystery

CINCINNATI (AP)—County police had a mystery on their hands today: How did an automobile bumper get on the cowcatcher of a train?

The discovery was made at Hamilton in adjoining Butler County late Monday night when a northbound Baltimore & Ohio mail train made its first stop after leaving Cincinnati.

Attached to the bumper was an Ohio license plate issued to Hercules Brewton of nearby Madisonville, but he could not be found by police.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Personal income during July slipped downward by $400 million on the annual rate, the government says.

Car Is Used To Kill Woman

Ex-Boy Friend Drives Over Body 2 Times

CHICAGO (AP)—A 36-year-old woman was killed today when a motorist, described by police as her former boy friend, deliberately ran his car into her, made a fast U-turn and ran over her a second time. Her male companion escaped with minor injuries.

Policeman John Casey, who witnessed the bizarre tragedy, captured the motorist, Nathan Brown, 30, after a short chase. Casey quoted Brown as saying: "I waited for that for four hours."

Killed was Lucille Fitzpatrick, 36, who was arrested last Saturday in the company of three Ohio men who have admitted, police said, they planned to rob a West Side bank. She was not linked to the robbery plans, police said, but had been charged with disorderly conduct.

Casey said he saw Brown's car run down Miss Fitzpatrick and her companion, Nathan Goss, 40, as they left a tavern. He said the car sped a short distance, then turned around, raced back and ran over the woman.

Democratic former Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan. Wiley and Lee are seeking re-nomination. Brannan, author of the controversial farm plan which Congress rejected, aspires to the Senate from Colorado in his first try for elective office.

Five other states picking party nominees for various offices are New Hampshire, Vermont, Minnesota, Washington and Arizona.

Georgia holds a primary Wednesday to pick a successor to retiring Sen. Walter George. Two former governors, Herman Talmadge and Melvin Thompson, are contesting for the Democratic nomination which is equivalent to election. Georgia also has contests for 6 to 10 House seats.

Eisenhower opens his own reelection campaign Wednesday with a rally for campaign leaders at his Gettysburg, Pa., farm. Vice President Nixon announced an intense campaign schedule of his own Monday.

Nixon said he will embark Sept. 18 on a backbreaking 15,000-mile campaign tour of 32 states to place "the constructive achievements" of the Eisenhower administration before the voters.

Union's Aides See 6-Week Vacations

WASHINGTON (AP)—Labor union planners today envisioned the time when workers may take six-week annual vacations or save up time for a year's trial retirement.

About 100 AFL-CIO research directors and union officials gathered to talk over the possibility of workers getting even more employer-paid free time.

In papers prepared for the conference none seemed to doubt that additional paid leisure is definitely in the cards for American workers. They pointed to government surveys showing an increasing trend to shorter work hours.

But they foresaw considerable argument over what form the extra leisure time will take—whether as a shorter work day, shorter work week, additional holidays, longer vacations, or combinations of several of these.

Peter Henle, assistant AFL-CIO research director, said women workers probably will prefer time off each day to attend to chores at home.

Men, he said, may want an added day off every week for do-it-yourself projects or trips. Henle proposed a system providing a year's paid leave of absence at age 50 or 55 after a certain amount of service.

Meanwhile, hearings on contempt charges brought by the company against 13 strikers were to continue today in Scioto County Common Pleas Court here. The company charges the strikers have violated a previous court injunction restricting picketing.

Free-Running Hogs Bring Objections From Oklahomans

WRIGHT CITY, Okla.—A temporary truce has been reached in McCurtain County's open range dispute, involving hogs and their invasion of ranches, highways, gardens, flower beds—even stores and the Methodist church.

Ranchers objected to the porkers scrambling over their property but squatters, who own little farm land but lots of swine, declared the southeast Oklahoma drought has burned up all pastures and only the little patches of grass along the roads stand between the animals and starvation.

The county commissioners voted Monday to delay until Oct. 1 any action on a petition calling for a special election to decide whether hogs can run free.

Ike Says Top Goal Is World Peace

WASHINGTON—President Eisenhower said today "we must widen every possible chink in the Iron Curtain" in an effort to promote global understanding and achieve enduring world peace.

The President made the statement in an informal talk to leaders from about 40 fields in American life. He had called them together to promote his idea of developing people-to-people contacts among all nations—free as well as Communist dominated.

Eisenhower said that "whether it is the Suez problem of today or another tomorrow," there is no more important objective than "preserving the peace and providing for our own security."

Federal Economics Board Being Urged

TIFFIN—Michael V. DiSalle, Democratic candidate for governor, told a Lions Club dinner here Monday night that the government's tight money policy is forcing the government into the choice between stifling small business or allowing inflation.

DiSalle recommended a five-man board be created to safeguard the nation's economy.

On such a board, he said, should be the secretary of the treasury, the chairman of the Federal Reserve System, the chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers, and the chairman of the House and Senate banking committees.

Johns, 82, and Bonham, 72, camp together each Summer at their lodge near here. It's equipped with two fireplace pits. At mealtime, each cooks and eats alone.

Next Draft Call For This Area Slated Sept. 19

George Kaiser of Ashville Route 2 is the latest inductee from this area on active duty with the armed forces. He was a volunteer for the August induction call.

Next draft call here is slated for Sept. 19, when one will be inducted. According to Regina Thornton, local draft board clerk, this inductee will again be a volunteer.

Miss Thornton said that young men who register after they reach the age of 18 are not classified for the draft until they are 20 years old. However, she pointed out, they must register on their 18 birthday or as soon as possible afterwards.

Miss Thornton went on to say that registrants will not be inducted into service until they are 22 years old.

Exceptions to this rule will include persons delinquent from prior calls or volunteers who desire to enter the armed forces before they reach 22.

Stock Mart Reacts To Election, Suez

NEW YORK—The stock market got jitters over the Maine election today and was down early this afternoon. Leading issues declined from fractions to around two points.

The warning by Britain and France that they are ready to use force in the Suez Canal crisis also depressed values.

Brokers said there was no doubt that considerable selling was due to the Democratic success in Maine, noting the fact that it has been an "Eisenhower market" all along.

Baby Name Stumps Monaco Royalty

NEW YORK—Grace Kelly came home today for the first time as Princess of Monaco. She disclosed that she and her princely husband have the same kind of problem that has beset many another husband and wife:

What to name the baby they are expecting in February.

She and Prince Rainier arrived on the liner United States.

The princess said "We have decided on about three names," but declined to say what they were. They did say they had no preference for a boy or girl. Either could inherit the Monaco throne.

Fair's Tractor-Pull Never Fails To Hold Spectators

Proof of top quality attractions, all good showmen seem to agree, is in measuring how long they can hold the close attention of the audience.

And on that basis many claim the Tractor Pulling Contest must be classed among the best features of the annual Pickaway County Fair. Many spectators, it has been pointed out, "come early for the event and are still on hand when the final champion is declared."

The contest this year will be in charge of Paul Peck, C. V. Neal, Loring Leist, Ben Grace and Harold Gibson.

Fee for each entry will be $3. And the competing tractors will weigh in on Wednesday, opening day of the fair, between 7:30 a. m. and 10 a. m. at Huston Grain, Main St., Circleville. After that time, the contest will open at the fairgrounds.

RULES and prizes for this popular contest are:

Open to anyone who is capable of driving a tractor and who abides by the following rules:

1. Only tractors on rubber are eligible. No caterpillar tractors. No four wheel drive tractors. No home made tractors. No steel wheels may be entered. No dual wheels. No tire chains will be allowed.

2. Distance of pull will be 20 feet at one hitching. Start to be made with a tight chain (no jerking start). Length of chain to be at least eight feet minimum.

3. Contestants will be given two trials to move any load the given distance. Contestants may choose either end of sled for second trial providing boundary permits. Both pulls at once.

4. Contestants will be allowed

10 minutes to make repairs in case of breaks.

5. Only the driver will be allowed on the tractor while trial is being made. Driver must stay in seat. Tractor must be under control at all times.

6. Each contestant must hitch to a stationary drawbar. Height of drawbar to be not over 18 inches maximum. Point of hitch must be back of axle.

7. Clevis will be furnished by pulling committee.

8. Axle hitching will not be allowed.

9. Use of fluid in tires is permitted. All weights added must be regulation manufactured equipment, or its equivalent wheel and frame weights.

10. Classification—All tractors will be classified according to weight only, classified as follows:

Class A—up to 3800 lbs.
Class B—3801 to 5100 lbs.
Class C—5101 to 6200 lbs.
Class D—6201 to 7500 lbs.
Class E—7501 lbs. up. Regulations for this class apply the same as for the other classes.

11. Boundaries will be plainly marked and tractors must stay within those limits while trial is being made. Failure to do so will nullify the trial. The boundary width shall be from 12 to 15 feet.

12. The committee shall have full power to decide all questions arising in connection with the contest subject to the Rules and Administrations as provided. In any event not covered by the rules, the Committee shall have full power to decide in a manner that is fairest with the rules.

13. The Committee shall determine the winners and shall award the prizes according to the rules.

14. Failure to comply promptly with the directions of the Committee shall result in immediate disqualifications of the contestant.

15. All tractors must be weighed on the morning of the contest. Official driver must be in seat of tractor at time of weighing.

16. The pulling contest will start with class A and continue with class B, C, D, and E in that order.

17. It is understood that contestants participate at their own risk.

18. If contest is not completed by 5:30 p. m. the Chairman may move the contest to another part of the fairgrounds.

Prizes: First, Trophy plus $20.00; Second, $15.00; Third, $10.00; Fourth, $5.00.

Research has found that leptospirosis can't be spread through milk since undiluted milk rapidly kills Leptospira, the causative agent. In a study of milk from cows, goats and human beings, the antileptospiral principle was found mainly associated with casein.

Small Grains Expected To Top Last Year

The chairman of the Grain Department at the 1956 Pickaway County Fair has expressed belief that this year's display will be even more impressive than last year's exhibit, especially in the smaller grains.

The forecast comes from Ralph D. Bolender, chairman of the grain competition, always among the top features due to the keen rivalry for the corn sweepstakes trophy. Bolender indicated all advance arrangements for the Wednesday opening have been going smoothly.

Displays will be accepted all day Tuesday, with exhibits in place by 8 p. m., Bolender announced. Exhibits will be released between 4 and 6 p. m. Saturday, he added.

Assisting Bolender on the committee will again be: Ralph Fisher, Hoyt Timmons and J. B. Stevenson. Awards will be made on the basis of: maturity, seed condition, freedom from disease, uniformity and trueness of type or variety.

PRIZES WILL be awarded according to quality in case of only one entry.

Premiums for exhibit classes will be: first prize, $5; second prize, $3; third prize, $1; and fourth prize, a ribbon.

Exhibitors should correctly name their entry as to variety. Competition will be in the following:

FIELD CORN—an exhibit shall consist of 10 ears. Open pollinated class: Reids Yellow Dent; R. Clarage; best single ear; and any other named variety. Hybrid class: Early; Medium; Late.

SWEEPSTAKES—10 best ears win an engraved trophy. Best ear either open or hybrid. First, $2, second, $1; third, 50 cents.

POPCORN—exhibit shall consist of 10 ears. Classes: Rice type; Pearl type; Japanese; Japanese hull-less or Strawberry.

Free-Running Hogs Bring Objections From Oklahomans

WRIGHT CITY, Okla.—A temporary truce has been reached in McCurtain County's open range dispute, involving hogs and their invasion of ranches, highways, gardens, flower beds—even stores and the Methodist church.

Ranchers objected to the porkers scrambling over their property but squatters, who own little farm land but lots of swine, declared the southeast Oklahoma drought has burned up all pastures and only the little patches of grass along the roads stand between the animals and starvation.

The county commissioners voted Monday to delay until Oct. 1 any action on a petition calling for a special election to decide whether hogs can run free.

Next Draft Call For This Area Slated Sept. 19

George Kaiser of Ashville Route 2 is the latest inductee from this area on active duty with the armed forces. He was a volunteer for the August induction call.

Next draft call here is slated for Sept. 19, when one will be inducted. According to Regina Thornton, local draft board clerk, this inductee will again be a volunteer.

Miss Thornton said that young men who register after they reach the age of 18 are not classified for the draft until they are 20 years old. However, she pointed out, they must register on their 18 birthday or as soon as possible afterwards.

Miss Thornton went on to say that registrants will not be inducted into service until they are 22 years old.

Exceptions to this rule will include persons delinquent from prior calls or volunteers who desire to enter the armed forces before they reach 22.

Stock Mart Reacts To Election, Suez

NEW YORK—The stock market got jitters over the Maine election today and was down early this afternoon. Leading issues declined from fractions to around two points.

The warning by Britain and France that they are ready to use force in the Suez Canal crisis also depressed values.

Brokers said there was no doubt that considerable selling was due to the Democratic success in Maine, noting the fact that it has been an "Eisenhower market" all along.

Baby Name Stumps Monaco Royalty

NEW YORK—Grace Kelly came home today for the first time as Princess of Monaco. She disclosed that she and her princely husband have the same kind of problem that has beset many another husband and wife:

What to name the baby they are expecting in February.

She and Prince Rainier arrived on the liner United States.

The princess said "We have decided on about three names," but declined to say what they were.

They did say they had no preference for a boy or girl. Either could inherit the Monaco throne.

Fair's Tractor-Pull Never Fails To Hold Spectators

Proof of top quality attractions, all good showmen seem to agree, is in measuring how long they can hold the close attention of the audience.

And on that basis many claim the Tractor Pulling Contest must be classed among the best features of the annual Pickaway County Fair. Many spectators, it has been pointed out, "come early for the event and are still on hand when the final champion is declared."

The contest this year will be in charge of Paul Peck, C. V. Neal, Loring Leist, Ben Grace and Harold Gibson.

Fee for each entry will be $3. And the competing tractors will weigh in on Wednesday, opening day of the fair, between 7:30 a. m. and 10 a. m. at Huston Grain, Main St., Circleville. After that time, the contest will open at the fairgrounds.

RULES and prizes for this popular contest are:

Open to anyone who is capable of driving a tractor and who abides by the following rules:

1. Only tractors on rubber are eligible. No caterpillar tractors. No four wheel drive tractors. No home made tractors. No steel wheels may be entered. No dual wheels. No tire chains will be allowed.

2. Distance of pull will be 20 feet at one hitching. Start to be made with a tight chain (no jerking start). Length of chain to be at least eight feet minimum.

3. Contestants will be given two trials to move any load the given distance. Contestants may choose either end of sled for second trial providing boundary permits. Both pulls at once.

4. Contestants will be allowed

10 minutes to make repairs in case of breaks.

5. Only the driver will be allowed on the tractor while trial is being made. Driver must stay in seat. Tractor must be under control at all times.

6. Each contestant must hitch to a stationary drawbar. Height of drawbar to be not over 18 inches maximum. Point of hitch must be back of axle.

7. Clevis will be furnished by pulling committee.

8. Axle hitching will not be allowed.

9. Use of fluid in tires is permitted. All weights added must be regulation manufactured equipment, or its equivalent wheel and frame weights.

10. Classification—All tractors will be classified according to weight only, classified as follows:

Class A—up to 3800 lbs.
Class B—3801 to 5100 lbs.
Class C—5101 to 6200 lbs.
Class D—6201 to 7500 lbs.
Class E—7501 lbs. up. Regulations for this class apply the same as for the other classes.

11. Boundaries will be plainly marked and tractors must stay within those limits while trial is being made. Failure to do so will nullify the trial. The boundary width shall be from 12 to 15 feet.

12. The committee shall have full power to decide all questions arising in connection with the contest subject to the Rules and Administrations as provided. In any event not covered by the rules, the Committee shall have full power to decide in a manner that is fairest with the rules.

13. The Committee shall determine the winners and shall award the prizes according to the rules.

14. Failure to comply promptly with the directions of the Committee shall result in immediate disqualifications of the contestant.

15. All tractors must be weighed on the morning of the contest. Official driver must be in seat of tractor at time of weighing.

16. The pulling contest will start with class A and continue with class B, C, D, and E in that order.

17. It is understood that contestants participate at their own risk.

18. If contest is not completed by 5:30 p. m. the Chairman may move the contest to another part of the fairgrounds.

Prizes: First, Trophy plus $20.00; Second, $15.00; Third, $10.00; Fourth, $5.00.

Research has found that leptospirosis can't be spread through milk since undiluted milk rapidly kills Leptospira, the causative agent. In a study of milk from cows, goats and human beings, the antileptospiral principle was found mainly associated with casein.

Apple Pie Contest Added To Homemaking Department

The Pickaway County fairgrounds coliseum this week will be a busy place for local women in the Apple Pie Contest, to take place every day of the 1956 fair.

The contest is in addition to the regular Homemaking Department competition, according to Mrs. J. B. Stevenson of Circleville Route 2, general chairman. This year's fair has many new attractions to interest women.

Mrs. Stevenson reports that all pies are to be baked in 9-inch pans, if possible, and two crust pies are preferred. Pies must be in place every day at 1 p. m. and, following the judging, will be sold with the proceeds to be used to promote women's activities in future fairs. She said that Circleville and Pickaway County women, entering the contest, are eligible for at least four prizes, to be awarded every day.

Every afternoon will find special events taking place in the Homemaking Department.

THE BEAUTIFUL stitchery and decorative effects that are done by modern sewing machines, the know-how of flower arrangements and of hand-made rugs and style shows of children's clothes will be a part of the schedule. Highlighting the events will be a demonstration of an electronic oven and small electrical appliances.

The homemaking department, of special interest to both city and county women, has added a home sewing division and has expanded the arts and crafts class. Cookie classes feature the four main types: refrigerator, bar, rolled and drop cookies.

Since many homemakers are interested in commercial cake mixes from the standpoint of time and work saving, a class in the cake competition, allows the use of commercial mixes.

A class of hand-made afghans, added to the list of categories last year, will be renewed in the competition, along with several other newly added classes.

The committee members in charge of the women's activities for the 1956 fair are: Mrs. Don Courtright, Mrs. Ralph Fisher, Mrs. Budd Harden, Mrs. Loring Leist, Mrs. Ralph May, Mrs. Cecil Reid, Mrs. Charles Rose, Mrs. J. B. Stevenson, Mrs. Harold Gibson, Mrs. Paul Teegardin and Mrs. Hoyt Timmons.

MRS. DON Rehl and an assistant will judge the homemaking competition for the 1956 fair, homemaking department.

Exhibitors in this department must be residents of Pickaway County or the Circleville shopping area. Entries must be in place Tuesday by 6 p. m. The entries will be released at 4 p. m. Saturday and must be called for by 6 p. m.

Three cash awards will be presented for each category in the judging.

In the needlework class all work must be completed, in good condition and be the work of the exhibitor. No double entries will be permitted and no purchased articles accepted.

CLASSIFICATIONS, in addition to afghans, include:

Crochet, any kind of thread or yarn suitable to the article exhibited is permissible; tablecloths, bedspreads, ruffled centerpiece, flat centerpiece, fashion accessories, pot holders and mats, buffet and vanity sets and chair sets.

Embroidery: luncheon or bridge set, vanity set, pillow cases, chair set, centerpiece and tablecloth. Miscellaneous arts and crafts: best piece of Swedish weaving, best piece of textile painting, best piece of etched aluminum, best piece of reed weaving and best piece of tatting.

Home sewing: woman's cotton street dress, child's cotton dress and fancy apron.

Quilts with all quilting of applique stitching and final felling of binding to be done by hand; new patchwork, new applique and best old quilt.

Rugs with new and clean work given preference: hooked or punched of rag or yarn, crocheted or braided and novelty, homemade.

In the following Baked goods competition all articles must be homemade and wrapped in clear cellophane:

Cakes: one-half cake as well as whole cake will be acceptable: angel food, no icing, chocolate layer, white layer, spice layer, white layer from any commercial mix, any icing.

Cookies, six cookies on a plate: toll house, sugar, refrigerator, brownies, chocolate or butter-scotch.

Yeast bread and rolls, also with six on a plate: cloverleaf rolls or parker house rolls and sweet rolls.

Quick breads: corn bread, gingerbread and nut bread.

Pies, to be accepted until 11

a. m. Wednesday: two crust fruit and pumpkin.

Homemade candy: fudge, divinity and any other kind.

And canned goods, displayed in suitable glass jars: best can apples, best can peaches, best can pears, best can cherries, best can red tomatoes, best can green wax beans, four best assorted jellies, four best assorted pickles or relishes and four best assorted preserves or jams.

Drop Shown In Hogs On Raw Garbage

A report from the U. S. Department of Agriculture shows that at the end of 1955, 20 states were feeding no raw garbage to swine. Only three states (New Jersey, Texas, Connecticut) reported more than 6,000 swine on raw garbage feeding.

Semimonthly inspection of all herds where garbage was fed was conducted in 14 states, and a total of 90 per cent of the hogs fed garbage in 32 states were under some form of inspection.

For the entire nation, 58.9 per cent of the premises feeding garbage, fed it after it was cooked.

This group accounts for 88.5 per cent of the garbage fed hogs, the report stated. Of all the swine in the country only a fraction of 1 per cent are fed uncooked garbage.

The outbreak of vesicular exanthema several years ago was traced directly to garbage feeding which accounts for the state legislation requiring inspection and garbage cooking.

Iron, cobalt and nickel, in that order, are the three most magnetic metals.

Hamrick Predicts 'All-Out Efforts' In Fair's 4-H Competition

County Agent Lauds Quality Of Livestock

Schedule Of Judging Remains Unchanged; Judges Selected

By PAUL SMALLWOOD
Herald Staff Writer

Keen competition is expected again this year in the 4-H livestock show at the Pickaway County Fair, according to George Hamrick, newly named as county extension agent.

"Trophies, cups and cash awards will promote some all-out efforts," Hamrick predicted. "All 4-H'ers planning to exhibit are making every effort to have their animals in top condition."

Hamrick went on to say that the overall junior livestock show here, in quantity and quality, is the best he has seen in this part of the country.

This year's judging schedule will be about the same as last year. Judging will be as follows:

WEDNESDAY—swine, 9 a. m.; sheep, 2 p. m.

Thursday—beef steers, 9 a. m.; beef breeding animals, 1 p. m.

Friday—dairy, 9 a. m.

Judges this year include:

Beef—George Wilson, of Ohio State University.

Dairy—Dr. Harry Donohoe, of OSU.

Swine—Harold Hart, of Hilliards.

Sheep—Francis Bope, of Rushville.

HAMRICK noted that a number of 4-H members made good showings at the Ohio State Fair held in Columbus. Therefore, he added, competition will be at its peak during the fair here.

Rules governing 4-H livestock exhibiting include the following:

1. All animals must be exhibited and shown by the owner (club members) unless the agent or local advisor gives permission for some other club member to show the animal in the ring.

2. All registered animals in club work should be registered in the club member's name or in partnership with the father or guardian.

3. In the event grade breeding animals are taken as 4-H projects, they must be from a registered sire and have the breed characteristics of the sire.

4. Health requirements of livestock must be followed.

5. Be sure to have health certificates for cattle, sheep and swine at the Fair with livestock.

6. It is necessary to furnish own grain, hay and straw.

7. 1st through 10th place ribbons awarded on all project classifications.

8. Only one exhibit allowed per club in group classes.

Various categories to be on exhibit include the following:

BEEF

There will be approximately 40 head of beef breeding animals, 90 head of beef steers. Any breed is eligible for the steer feeding class.

Judging will be in the following order: Angus, Hereford and Shorthorn. Classes will include the following:

1. Two steer classes, with grand and reserve champion.

2. Female champion.

3. Group of three.

4. Six breeding classes, with grand and reserve champion.

5. Club group of four.

6. Two showmanships.

DAIRY

The order of judging will be:

Brown Swiss, Ayrshire, Jersey, Guernsey and Holstein.

Classes will include the following:

1. Six classes, with a junior, senior and grand champion for each breed.

2. Grand and reserve champion female.

3. Special artificial class.

4. Club group of four.

5. Achievement.

SWINE

There will be approximately 300 head on show. Judging will be done according to weight, in the market classes, and breed, in the breeding classes.

Breeds will be exhibited in the following order: Hampshire, Duroc, Chester White, Yorkshire, Spotted Poland China, Poland China, Berkshire and O.I.C. Classes will include the following:

1. Three market classes.

2. Grand and reserve champion market hog.

3. Two breeding classes.

4. Three pigs from litter.

5. Pen of three.

6. Showmanship.

SHEEP

Classes will include the following:

1. Two market classes.

2. Grand and reserve champion lamb.

3. Three ewe classes.

4. Pen of three.

5. Showmanship.

POULTRY & RABBITS

A poultry exhibit should consist of a pen of three pullets. An exhibit of rabbits should consist of one doe and a litter or a junior and senior doe.

Cattle receiving a ration lacking in phosphorus often show a liking for indigestible items such as stones, wood or rubbish.

Judges Picked For Subordinate And Juvenile Grange Displays

Mr. and Mrs. George Bosley Jr., grand deputies of Marion, have been chosen to judge the subordinate and juvenile granges' display at this year's Pickaway County Fair.

Eight subordinate granges are making plans to exhibit in this year's Fair. The displays must be in place by 8 p. m. Tuesday. The Bosleys will judge the exhibits at 10 a. m. Wednesday.

A flat premium will be given each subordinate grange exhibiting and three cash premiums will be awarded in the competition.

In grading the exhibits for awards, the judges will consider: Balance (deducting for crowding), attractiveness and the presentation of ideas under general appearance; quality of exhibit, attractiveness of grange name design and labeling in materials; and effectiveness will be judged by the use of theme, originality and vivid presentation.

COUNTY DEPUTY and Mrs. John F. Dowler, in charge of the display, expressed the hope that this year's exhibit will receive favorable comment from fair visitors, and will be even better than the high class display presented during the 1935 Fair.

Also making plans to exhibit in the grange display are two or three juvenile granges in the county.

The Marion grand deputies will judge the juvenile display, using the same score card.

Exhibits are to consist of work of the juvenile grange, either as a group or as the work of individuals of the grange. Displays are to be made, produced or grown by the members making the exhibit. Not less than four juvenile members, assisted by an adult Grange member, may present the display.

CARNAGE ON THE HIGHWAYS

ANOTHER three-day holiday week-end has passed into history, leaving behind a long list of dead and injured on the highways.

Safety organizations now estimate that this year's fatality toll on the roads of the U. S. will reach 42,000, up more than 3,000 from last year's staggering total.

For days before the Labor Day week-end newspapers were filled with exhortations from safety officials, government executives and editorial writers to "drive safely and arrive safely." It is obvious that many drivers neglected the advice, or are woefully inept at the wheel of an automobile.

In the week preceding the Labor Day week-end a congressional committee was in Detroit to investigate charges that mayhem and death is being built into new cars at the factories, especially by equipping them with too much horsepower. The Congressmen viewed many demonstrations on various proving grounds to prove that a high-powered car is a safer car, because it is more responsive to the driver's will.

Some of the Congressmen were reported to be unimpressed. There is a growing determination in and out of Congress to cut the traffic toll on the nation's highways. Insurance companies, which have been forced to boost auto liability insurance rates many times in the last decade, report claims have again mounted this year, making further increases inevitable.

One fact is indisputable. Experience proves that concerted appeals to drivers to drive cautiously cannot cut the highway fatality rate below 42,000 this year.

FEWER AG STUDENTS

A NUMBER of agricultural colleges across the country report that enrollment in their agricultural departments is dropping. In a period of rapid college enrollment gains, Kansas State has been losing ground at the rate of 1 per cent a year.

At some other institutions the decline is more precipitate. At Michigan State University, the number of farm majors has dropped 20 per cent since 1949. The percentage of students in agriculture at Texas A. and M. has dropped from 35 per cent in 1936 to 19 per cent.

One reason is reported to be that drought in many areas has discouraged potential farm majors. Also, while farm life sounds like all "drudgery and hardship," industry and business are offering topnotch opportunities to graduates.

Yet, despite this picture, Dean Arthur Weber of Kansas State's School of Agriculture holds that the whole approach to agricultural education has changed. He contends that the old saying that if a boy is going to farm he doesn't need to go to college will have to be changed to "he's going to farm, so he has to go to college."

Farming is more complex and requires more techniques than ever. Aside from this, there is an ever greater need in industry and government for agronomists, geneticists, animal breeders, entomologists, botanists and other agriculture college-trained persons.

Like engineering and a number of other vital fields, this seems to be one that is being by-passed these days.

George E. Sokolsky's

These Days

It is impossible in a moral world to separate politics from moral law, although the Machiavellians, who reject absolutes of any kind, refuse to accept the moral law as a guide for political action. They favor a pragmatic expediency, but pragmatism can lead to disaster because what works today may be very unsound tomorrow, whereas certain fundamental principles, such as "Thou Shalt Not Kill," are everlasting.

George F. Kennan makes the point in an article that there is little hope for better relations between the United States and Red China. Then he adds:

"... I have never shared and cannot now share in the savage enthusiasm many Americans have worked up over the cause of keeping the Chinese Communists out of the United Nations. I fail to see the logic of this position or to understand the overriding importance people attach to the question. It is not my understanding that we ever objected on principle to the inclusion of Communist states in the United Nations."

This attitude completely ignores the nature of the Korean War which was declared to be a United Nations police action and into which the Chinese Communists intervened with the object of defeating the United Nations forces. Eventually they put up a campaign to force themselves upon the United Nations. Their attitude could not be translated otherwise than an attempt to shoot their way into the United Nations.

That cannot be other than an immoral act which needs to be defeated so that no other nation may have a precedent for dealing with a United Nations question by the use of force. As a matter of fact, since the Korean War, the Arab nations have resorted to force in their attitude toward Israel and the United Nations has been able to do nothing about it.

Since the Korean War, Red China has held a number of Americans as prisoners. Some were soldiers, some civilians, some missionaries. Negotiations for the release of these prisoners have been continuous for more than a year without satisfactory results. The Red Chinese are treating us contemptibly. It is impossible to deal with a nation that has no honor, no dignity, no truth. Until a new government, based on moral principles, comes into existence in Peking, there is no reason why we should deal with what is there now.

Mr. Kennan says: "... And to scratch around now among Communist regimes to establish relative degrees of iniquity, entitling some to membership and others not, is an undertaking for which I personally have no stomach."

But we do not need to scratch around for relative degrees of iniquity. The iniquity asserts itself and there are just some things that are intolerable in nations as they are in man. One of them is lying; another is arrogance. We know that Red China lied when her propagandists throughout the world spread the story of germ warfare.

Some may shrug it off as a clever press agent's stunt. It was a lie, a deliberate, cold-blooded lie designed to picture the United States as a barbarous, inhuman nation. That lie was so widespread that it is still believed. It was used as propaganda even by the Communist Party in this country.

Air Conditioning Aids Politics

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Some things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

That air conditioning is responsible for a major improvement in American political practices: The hotel room in which party leaders pick a candidate no longer has to be smoke-filled. Presumably this enables them to see the issues more clearly.

That Betty Furness, the pretty lady icebox peddler, took a 30-dress wardrobe to the two national political conventions. Not to be outdone, Carl King, huckster for a rival TV network, showed up with 15 suits, 8 pairs of shoes, 36 shirts, 20 ties, 5 belts, 8 tiepins, and 24 sets of BVDs.

That Elaine Malbin, the opera singer, has changed her hair style 38 times this year alone.

That there are only about 125 pounds of steak on a 1,000-pound steer, which explains why most of us have to eat hamburger.

That male motorists probably won't believe this: two-thirds of the women in America don't drive automobiles. It only seems like the other third all get on the highway at the same time.

That only about 25 per cent of babies born in America now are breast-fed.

That about 30 per cent of the life insurance policy holders in the United States are under 18.

That a columnist in the Missouri State Penitentiary's monthly newspaper observes bitterly, "about the only way for an ex-convict to make an impression today is with his fingerprints."

That if a girl doesn't want too much competition while hunting her best bet is to go to college. Two out of three of America's 2,400,000 college students are men.

That a young man seeking a wife who can keep him in the style to which he wants to become accustomed will do better to look for an heiress rather than a working girl. Only 40,000 of the 21 million American women who hold jobs outside the home earn $10,000 or more a year.

That, no matter how many headaches the woes of modern life produce, the drug industry feels ready to cope with them. Does it comfort you to know there are now machines that can spew out a million tablets in eight hours?

That only 1 out of every 10 people who start a diet ever get down to their desired weight and stick to it.

That men, who've always had the job of "bringing home the bacon," now are playing a bigger role in selecting all the family groceries. Checks by supermarkets show that only 52.7 per cent of sales are made to women shoppers alone.

That a lady named Ann Necchi used 124,000 yards of thread to sew the U. S. Constitution on a blue felt cloth 210 by 18 feet.

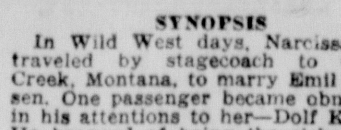

That Gertrude Berg ("Molly Goldberg") gives this leap year tip: "A sensible girl should have enough sense not to look like a sensible girl."

SYNOPSIS

In Wild West days, Narcissa Hull traveled by stagecoach to Coyote Creek, Montana, to marry Emil Jacobson. One passenger became obnoxious in his attentions to her—Dolf Kinney. He bragged of being the richest and most powerful man in the territory and told her to hit Jacobson and marry him. Narcissa found comfort in the presence of Dr. Erd Eklund, who helped her fend off Kinney's advances. When the stagecoach stopped at Coyote Creek, Emil was not waiting for her. The doctor offered her a ride to his cabin and she gratefully accepted. They found Emil—murdered only minutes before. Dr. Eklund thought of a haven for Narcissa—a position as housekeeper for Tom Arrington and Tom's two wild young orphan daughters.

For hidden reasons, Kinney wants Eklund to replace Philpott, the surgeon at the local Army post who resigned. When Erd declines, Kinney threatens to expose him as a deserter at Chickamauga. Kinney also has an influence over Major Blake, the post commander, and Blake offers the appointment. Blake learns Erd has one ace up his sleeve—he plans to remove the nurse bullet from Emil's heart as a clue to the murderer.

CHAPTER 7

"You will be the medical officer here from now on," said Major Blake. "Mr. Kinney recommended you, and on the whole, it seems a logical solution of the problem. He has informed me that you are agreeable."

"It was his idea," Eklund replied and smiled, since he had come almost straight here from his talk with Kinney, the trader must have conveyed his consent before it was given. "Where there's need, a doctor's business is to do the best he can."

"It should be an excellent arrangement for you," Blake said testily. "It's a little irregular, but you will have the temporary rank and salary of captain, with headquarters here at the post."

"If it's all the same to you, Major, we'll forget that part of it," Eklund said. "I'd prefer to keep my office in town. I have to look after my other patients, and they know where to find me. I'll spend as much time here as necessary, of course. But I would much prefer that you arrange for a new man to replace Dr. Philpott as quickly as possible. Meanwhile, I'll do the best I can."

This time, there was a visible trace of amazement behind the cold eyes of the major.

"Most men would jump at the chance for a regular commission with the Army," he suggested.

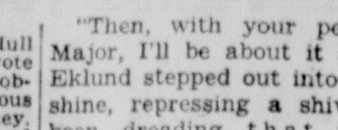

"Perhaps. But I have my work, and I like it. I'm agreeing to do this only as an accommodation, and to protect, as well as possible, the health of everyone in the community. I consider that there's ample work for two doctors, the same as before."

"You may be right. However, with Captain Philpott leaving so unexpectedly, it will be a matter of weeks, perhaps months, before a new medical officer can arrive."

"I expected that. I'd like to study Dr. Philpott's records in regard to the personnel. I have just secured a fresh supply of smallpox vaccine. Have I your permission to vaccinate whoever appears to need it?"

"You're the doctor," Blake said coldly. "I leave all such decisions to you. Along with the responsibility."

"Thank you, yes," Eklund agreed. "If you'll have half of them line up, I'll vaccinate that many this morning. As for you, young lady, I'll teach you a lesson about poking your nose into a doctor's business. I need an assistant, and if you can stand the sight of a few drops of blood, you can swab off the arms of the vic-

SYNOPSIS

"Then, with your permission, Major, I'll be about it at once," Eklund stepped out into the sunshine, repressing a shiver. He'd been dreading that interview more than he cared to confess, even to himself. He moved across to Captain Philpott's now deserted quarters, stood for a moment to look around.

He'd known Philpott casually—a fussy little man well into middle age, a career man beginning, as did so many in the Army, to suffer the pangs of disillusion as they saw their youth slipping away, their dreams unrealized. It had come to Philpott that he was only an Army doctor at a far-off post, and that he never would be more than that.

Awakening, if slow, had been bitter, to the certainty that this was all that he was fitted for; to the fact that he had not kept up to the march of progress of his colleagues in general practice, and so would have a hard time in direct competition with them. Something of that he had confided to Eklund some weeks before. Now, at the height of his disillusion, he had been quick to grasp the chance to sever an unprofitable association.

The records were here, carefully neat and precise. And, like Philpott himself, they were a hollow sham. He'd done the obvious, those things of the moment which could not be avoided. All the rest he had left undone, and horror grew in Eklund as he sorted the records and the meager supplies left behind by his predecessor.

Not only had the soldiers not been vaccinated against smallpox, but there was very little vaccine on hand, and that so old that it was probably worthless.

"I'll have to get at them today," Eklund reflected grimly. "It's not a matter of choice."

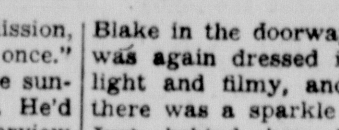

Neither was it so simple. He'd made a special trip to Forty Mile, because that town was the site of the nearest drug store, the only one within two hundred miles. He'd been fortunate in securing a supply of vaccine, had purchased the entire amount available. He'd ordered as much more from the druggist, to be secured and sent to him as soon as possible.

But that would be a matter of weeks at the earliest. If there was to be an epidemic, it was needed at once. Weeks would be too late. As it was, he had enough for the post—barely enough. Which took no consideration of the town, the scattered ranchers, trappers, prospectors and other settlers, to say nothing of the Indians.

"It's like putting a man in a battle with enough ammunition to last till noon," he reflected wryly. "You can hold the enemy off for a long time, knowing that he'll swarm over your breastworks and finish you off at his leisure before the day's out."

"Am I intruding, Erd? Or should I say, Captain Doctor Eklund, your honor?"

Eklund turned, his face relaxing to a smile at sight of Helen Blake in the doorway. Today she was again dressed in something light and flimsy, and as usual there was a sparkle in her eyes. Just behind her, he glimpsed Captain McKinstry, a young officer whom he had found a likable sort on the two or three occasions when they had met.

"I really had to poke my nose into what you were doing," Helen went on, gazing critically around the room. "Anything for an excuse to come and see you. You're the only eligible bachelor around, you know, except for Bill here, and he has a stodgy sense of duty which keeps him faithful to some girl he left behind him—a girl he hasn't seen for nearly two years, yet he keeps her image in his heart, blinding him to my beauty! Heigh-ho! So of course I had to come and bother you, Erd, dear."

McKinstry grinned. "A soldier takes his life in his hands in more ways than one," he observed. "Battles seem to be among the lighter hazards. I was instructed, sir, to ask if you have any orders in regard to the men?"

"Thank you, yes," Eklund agreed. "If you'll have half of them line up, I'll vaccinate that many this morning. As for you, young lady, I'll teach you a lesson about poking your nose into a doctor's business. I need an assistant, and if you can stand the sight of a few drops of blood, you can swab off the arms of the vic-

General Rules Announced For Fair's 4-H Entries

All members of the various Pickaway County 4-H clubs are completing arrangements for display projects at this year's big county fair.

Some of the general rules pertaining to 4-H competition include:

1. All exhibitors in boys' and girls' 4-H Club work must be enrolled in an organized 4-H Club in Pickaway County cooperating with the county extension service.

2. Exhibitors in this department must have been enrolled in an organized 4-H Club prior to May 15, 1956 and been in attendance at least eight or more regular meetings of the local club. All projects exhibited must have been selected and started before May 15, 1956.

3. REGULATIONS of the Pickaway County Fair must be followed in all cases. No entry fee shall be charged 4-H Club members for entries in 4-H Club classes.

4. Exhibits must conform to 4-H requirements.

5. No exhibitor will be permitted to exhibit more than six (6) animals and is limited to two entries to a class.

6. To be eligible for cash premiums, the exhibitor must have been 9 years of age by Jan. 1, 1956 and must have been less than 21 years of age on January 1, 1956.

7. No premium money will be awarded and any project shall be considered a failure unless a record book is completed by the designated time. Project books of all members of home economics clubs must be completed by grading time in local club.

MEMBERS must exhibit at least one (1) project at The Fair for 4-H Club credit unless failure to do so is beyond their control, or special permission given.

8. All exhibits must be in place Tuesday Sept. 11, 6 p. m. No exhibits released before 4 p. m., Saturday, Sept. 15.

9. Each member exhibiting will be given a Junior Fair pass to admit them to The Fair each day.

10. 4-H members desiring to exhibit in the open class may do so by carrying out the requirements listed for open class exhibitors.

11. 4-H final grades are arrived at as follows: book grade, 25 per cent; project grade, 50 per cent; advisor's grade, 25 per cent. Regular premium is awarded on the basis of final grade.

THE HOME economics club project grade will be determined at grading time by use of project score card. The livestock project grade will be determined by how well the animal has been taken care of and how well it is fitted and trained.

All animals will be placed according to breed standards to determine the recipients of any trophies, cup and special premiums that may be given. Exhibits and record books will be graded on a letter basis as follows:

A—excellent; B—good; C—Average; D—unsatisfactory.

Five 4-H Club members and four 4-H Club advisors will be able to attend the 4-H Club Congress at Ohio State University this Fall, due to the generosity of various business firms. Two 4-H Club members will attend the Conservation Camp, with the selection to be made by the 4-H advisory committee.

Boys' and girls' clubs making the highest score on the honor club sheet will receive champion club pennants. The next 10 clubs will receive honor club pennants.

PLAQUES WILL be awarded to the outstanding home economics club and to the outstanding agriculture club. Trophies will be given to the boy and girl scoring highest in the health achievement contest.

Other awards include:

Trophy and cup for the tractor rodeo; cup trophy for the 4-H heart award (for home economics clubs); and pins to each 4-H Club member completing one or more projects indicating the number of years the member has completed one or more projects.

There will be a Pickaway County 4-H Club advisors' banquet early next Spring for those who either served in 1956 or will serve in 1957.

A number of miscellaneous 4-H projects have also been scheduled. These include: vegetable gardening, special crops, woodworking, farm electricity, bees, colt and miscellaneous.

LAS CRUCES, N. M. — Deputy Sheriff Harry Geck recently filed a routine theft report. Four hub caps and fender skirts were lifted off his patrol car.

Fair To Have Square Dance, Pick 'Queen'

Square dancing for young and old and a fair "queen" contest will be two new added attractions at the 1956 Pickaway County Fair.

According to County Extension Agent George Hamrick, a concrete slab has just been completed at the fairgrounds, built especially for the popular, fast moving square dance entertainment.

The square dances are scheduled every night during the fair. A group of musicians from Ashville is slated to provide the music. All fair-goers are invited to show their dancing ability on the new dance floor.

THE FAIR "queen" contest will be held Friday at 1 p. m. All young ladies, age 14 and over and associated with county 4-H clubs, are eligible to enter as contestants.

The 4-H girl named queen at this year's fair will represent Pickaway County in the 1957 fair queen contest to be held at the Ohio State Fair in Columbus.

Old Ohio Mills Play Role In State History

Old mill streams play an important part in Ohio history.

For more than a century, an old mill on the Little Sandusky River near Upper Sandusky has been a monument to the last tribe of Indians to tread Ohio soil. In 1843 the Wyandot Indians packed their ponies and started a long trek to their new home beyond the Mississippi River.

The mill was a gift to the Wyandots from the United States Government as a reward for their loyalty during the War of 1812.

Recently the land adjacent to the mill was turned over to the state and is being developed into a public recreational area that will be known as "Old Indian Mill State Park."

Another famous mill site on the Blanchard River at Findlay inspired Tell Taylor to compose his immortal ballad "Down By The Old Mill Stream."

Bargain Day Can Be Rugged Deal

OTTAWA, Ill. — Bargain day proved to be no bargain for Miss Vieta Gardner when she was pushed by jostling bargain hunters in a local department store.

She claims in a $40,000 damage suit that the store placed a sales counter at the head of the basement stair and that the stairs had no adequate railing on which to support herself when she fell.

4-H Colt Club Gaining Wide Notice In Ohio

The local 4-H Colt Club, which will show in two classes at the Pickaway County Fair next Friday, received mention in two nationally known saddle horse publications during August.

The Buckeye 4-H Saddle Colt

Club is making a name for itself, believed to be the only 4-H club of its kind in Ohio. Aims of the organization are devoted strictly to the registered American saddle horse breed.

At the fair later this week, the club plans to show its weanling class—as last year—in front of the grandstand. The event will be held between the third and fourth heats of the harness racing program on Friday night.

The yearlings, a big attraction at the fair last year when they showed as weanlings, will be exhibited this year in front of the grandstand at 4 p. m. Friday. At 7:15 that evening, just before the cattle sale, they will be offered at auction.

Steve Vallery, well known announcer from Waverly, will be at the microphone. Dick Vaughn, trainer for the Beasley Stables at Windy Hills, Athens, will be the judge.

The organisms that cause coccidiosis in poultry have been known to survive in the soil from one summer to the next.

Make Homework Lighter

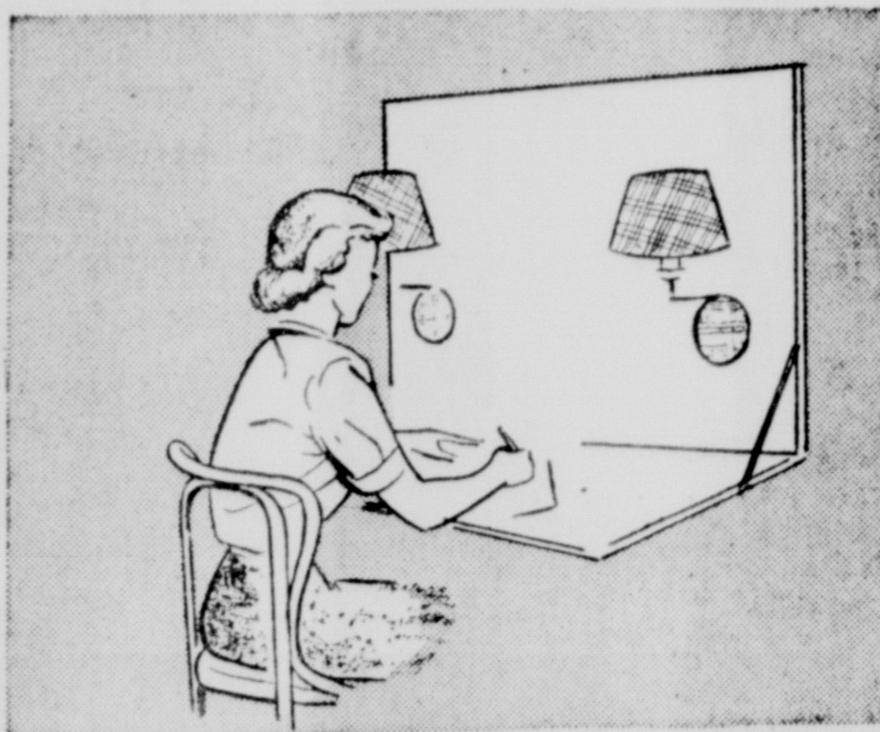

here's an inexpensive study center you can build

Sometimes there is no desk in the home, or no suitable place for a desk. In that case, here is a way to create a study area wherever there is a flat surface at the right height, such as a kitchen table, a sewing machine, a card table, or a dining room table.

The fold-away desk shown here can be set up in any of these locations, and then put away like a card table when the study period is over. It can be built easily by anyone in the family who is handy at using simple tools, with inexpensive materials that are readily available.

Paint both the desk top and the wall section in light colors. See the drawings for details and dimensions. The material list covers all items required. For a free copy of the booklet "How to Make Homework Lighter" phone or write the Home Lighting Dept. of the Electric Company.

MATERIAL LIST

Standard $\frac{1}{2}$ " x $1\frac{1}{2}$ " lattice stripping:

- 2 pieces — 42" long
- * 1 piece — 39 $\frac{1}{4}$ " long
- 2 pieces — 25 $\frac{1}{4}$ " long
- 6 pieces — 11 $\frac{1}{4}$ " long

Desk surface:

$\frac{1}{4}$ " plywood — 42" x 24"

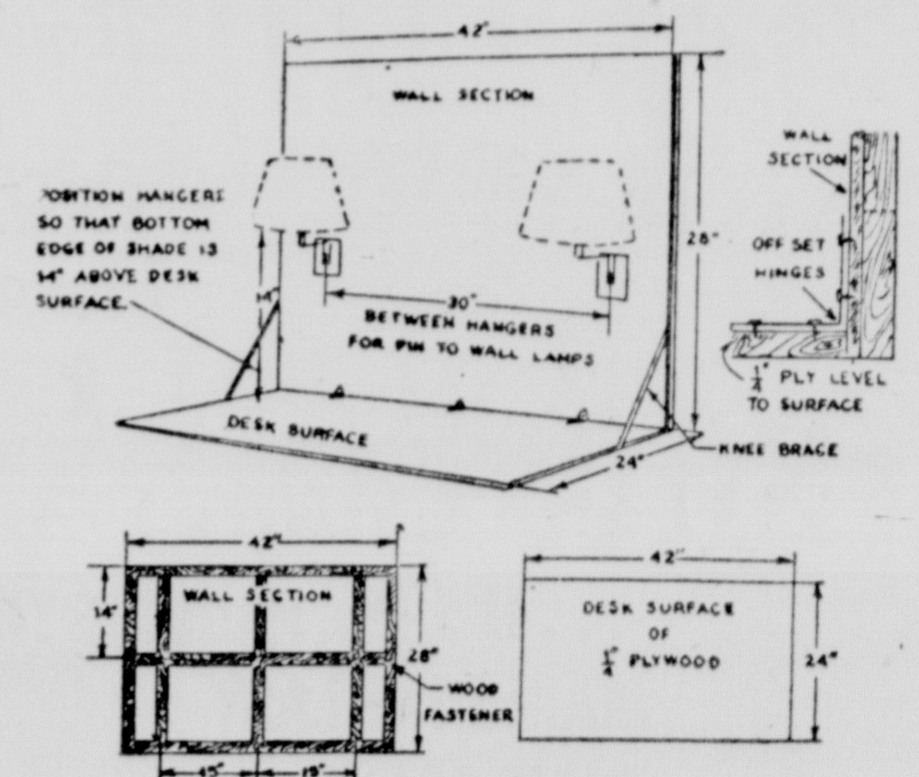

Front surface, wall section:

May be $\frac{1}{4}$ " plywood, celotex, corrugated cardboard or similar material 42" x 28"

- 1 pair folding knee braces
- 3 offset hinges
- 18 wood fasteners

In this case a single unit consisting of two pin-to-wall lamps is used to light the fold-away desk. Both lamps are controlled by a single switch.

A pair of individual lamps is also perfectly suitable. The shades should be fairly light — not dark colors that contrast sharply with the light background.

FRONT SURFACE OF WALL SECTION MAY BE OF $\frac{1}{8}$ " PLYWOOD, CELOTEX, CORRUGATED CARDBOARD OR SIMILAR MATERIAL.

Van Camp Chairman; Entries, Fans Drawn From Wide Region

Pickaway County schools will again stress a variety theme at this year's display project at the annual fair.

Harold Strous and County Schools Superintendent George McDowell, serving as committee heads for the exhibit, announced that at least four schools are planning displays. Both high school and elementary work will be shown.

Final arrangements are being completed by teachers, superintendents and students.

No competition is scheduled for the display, which has as its purpose a display of the many varied activities of the school curriculum.

THE WORK done in the academic courses in the schools will be on display. Emphasis will be placed on the special fields in the high schools, such as home economics, industrial arts, commercial courses and music.

Work in arithmetic, art, writing and geography, plus workbooks and notebooks are expected to be on display by the elementary pupils, giving Fair visitors a rounded example of the school schedules.

Assisting the Rev. Mr. Elsea in handling this popular contest will be Ralph Fisher, Hoyt Timmons and J. B. Stevenson. name their entry as to variety.

Western Horse Show Included In Fair's Final Day Attractions

A genuine Western Horse Show, presented by the Ashville Riding Club, will be a big final day feature at the 1956 Pickaway County Fair. The event, which will include races and showing, is scheduled for Saturday at 1 p. m.

At this year's show, competition will be open to everyone. In last year's show, sponsored for the first time by the Ashville group, contestants were limited to Pickaway County only.

Emerson Brown, president of the Riding club, said all proceeds from this year's show will be turned over to the county fair board.

Because more horses and riders will be competing this year, Brown expressed belief that the 1956 show will prove to be an even greater hit than it was last year.

League Sponsors Fine Arts Display

BY PATSY NEFF
Herald Staff Writer

The Circleville Art League is again sponsoring the Juvenile Fine Arts display at this year's Pickaway County Fair.

Members of the league stress they are proud of the part they have in sponsoring the exhibit, which they hope will again be enjoyed and supported by the public as it was at last year's fair.

Since this is the first fair for the new Junior Art League, formed in January, the senior group is looking forward to an even better display, due to the enthusiasm of the Junior League members. All youngsters of the vicinity under the age of 19, whether they are or are not members of the Art League, are urged to enter their works in the exhibit.

Mrs. Palma Martin has been secured as judge of the show. Entries, to be received from 4 to 7 p. m. in the coliseum, will be judged after 7 p. m. by Mrs. Martin, who is the new art teacher in Circleville. Entries for the display are to be called for by 4 p. m. Saturday.

MISS MARTHA REID, chairman, and a committee of all members of the Senior Art League, will be in charge of the showing. Miss Mary Lynne Brown of the Junior Fair Board will be the representative for the Juvenile Fine Arts.

During the 1955 display, Miss Lissa Given and Mr. Kent Spencer were grand prize winners in their respective age groups. Miss Given was also first place winner in her age group in the first Junior Art exhibit during the fair in 1951.

Members of the Senior League, who sponsor the annual juvenile exhibit, will not present a display of their works, in hopes of making this year's largest juvenile display.

Miss Ruth Montelius, spokesman for the senior group, expressed the appreciation of the league for the cooperation of fair officials at last year's display and for the generous support of the public during the showing.

A cash award will be given for first place in each class, and ribbons will be awarded for second, third and fourth places. Cash awards also will be given for the outstanding work in both the 6-12 age group and the 12-19 age group.

The works of the junior artists must be original, not copied or traced from other paintings or drawings, and should be suitably matted and framed for its protection. Any subject matter may be used in the various classes.

DIVISIONS of the exhibit are to be as follows:

Ages 6-7-8: pencil, charcoal or pen and ink; pastel or oil; watercolor.

Ages 9-10-11: pencil, charcoal or pen and ink; pastel or oil; watercolor.

Ages 12-13-14: pencil, charcoal or pen and ink; pastel or oil; watercolor.

Ages 15-16-17-18: pencil, charcoal or pen and ink; pastel or oil; watercolor.

Local Man Joins Hereford Group

Kenneth B. Towler of Circleville has been named to junior membership in the American Hereford Association, the world's largest purebred registry organization, with headquarters in Kansas City, Mo.

A total of 778 junior Hereford breeders were placed on the association official roster during the last six months. The association maintains active accounts for more than 80,000 breeders of registered Herefords over the nation.

The Hereford Association during the last fiscal year recorded 522,639 purebred calves. The year's total recordings were the third highest on record, and more than twice the combined registrations of other major beef breeds.

Braves, Bums Open Tell-Tale Series Tonight

Milwaukee's Top Trio
Of Buhl, Adcock, Aaron
To Relish This Test

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Bob Buhl, Joe Adcock and Hank Aaron, three guys enjoying their best seasons in the majors because they've murdered the Dodgers, get their last shots at Brooklyn's Old Gray Mares as Milwaukee checks in at Ebbets Field for a two-game series opening tonight.

It could be the beginning of the end for the long-heretic National League pennant race. The Braves, in the lead since July 13, have a one-game edge over Brooklyn's second-place world champions, who had the flag packed away by this time last season.

For the most part, it's been Buhl, Adcock and Aaron who have kept the Braves in front of the Bums.

Buhl, a 28-year-old righthander who never had won more than 13 in his three previous major league seasons, is 16-7 at the moment—with a 7-0 record against Brooklyn. He could become only the third pitcher ever to beat the Dodgers eight times in a single year in the opener tonight. He'll be up against Sal (9-4) Maglie, who is 1-0 against Milwaukee.

Ed Reulbach (9-0) with the 1908 Chicago Cubs and Joe McGinnity (8-0) with the 1903 New York Giants are the only two to pull it off.

Adcock, however, has been the Dodgers' biggest headache. He never has hit more than 23 home runs in one season, but now he has 35 and needs just two more on Dodger pitching to tie the NL record for homers against one club in one season. Billy Joe, driving in 20 runs and batting .429 against the Brooks, has walloped 11 home runs against the champs.

Aaron has been a pest to the Brooks since spring training, when he batted .552 against them. At the moment, he's leading the NL at .328 — with a .418 mark against Brooklyn.

It was Buhl and Adcock who got the Braves started on an 11-game winning streak in mid-June that hustled Milwaukee out of a fifth-place slump and back into the lead. And it all started at Ebbets Field—when the Braves, playing under manager Fred Haney for the first time, swept a June 17 double-header.

Adcock, belting three home runs for the pair, walloped an unprecedented shot over the left field stands, winning the opener 5-4 in the ninth for Buhl.

Haney wants a sweep this time, too. "The rest of the league will have to catch us to beat us," says Haney, "but we need 'em all now."

The Braves, like the Dodgers, have 17 to play. They're 11-9 against Brooklyn so far, but Dodger Manager Walt Alston, unusually optimistic, figures the Dodgers, playing 13 of their remaining games at home, are in a good spot.

"Our relievers (Clem Labine and Don Bessent) are rested and Carl Furillo and Gil Hodges are starting to hit," said Alston, whose champs haven't been in first place since April 28.

"Uptown," where his Redlegs are playing two at the Polo Grounds with the seventh-place Giants, Cincinnati Manager Birdie Tebbets, taken back a bit by a three-game loss in St. Louis last weekend, still sees it "a three-team race." Now three games back in third place, Birdie sees a comeback coming. "We have before, and we will again," he says.

Japan Baseballers Leading In Tourney

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Japan reigns today as the only undefeated team in the global world series of baseball after upsetting the United States team, 6-3, Monday.

The Japanese, with three victories, play tonight against Hawaii's Red Sox, who edged Colombia, 3-2, Monday night. The U. S. club, from Fort Wayne, Ind., competes against Mexico, which ousted Puerto Rico, 4-3.

The only club assured of survival tonight is Japan. The other three teams, with two victories and one loss apiece, are in danger of elimination. Two losses drop a team from the meet.

Iowa Pointing For '57 Season

Hawkeyes Returning With Only 4 Seniors

IOWA CITY, Iowa, (AP)—Iowa's Hawkeyes may not improve their 3-5-1 record of last season in the pending football campaign, but keep tab on the Hawkeyes in 1957.

Coach Forest Evashevski, who flies his own plane, just has four seniors among his top 22 players. So his chances of making the Hawkeyes fly even close to the Big Ten's first division this fall seem remote. Next year, the picture may brighten considerably.

The four seniors form the nucleus of Evashevski's No. 1 outfit, including quarterback Ken Ploen, halfback Don Dobrino, center Don Suchy, and right end Frank Gilliam, a whale of a wingman, who was out last season with a broken leg.

Ploen, who steps into the shoes of Jerry Reichow, is Iowa's bellwether.

"The only hope we have this season," said Evashevski, "is based on Ploen's leadership." "I know we're not as strong as last year," said Evashevski, "and certainly we couldn't be after losing such players as Reichow, halfbacks Eddie Vincent and Earl Smith, guard Cal Jones and end Jim Freeman."

"We'll have to do more throwing this year and vary our offense more. We won't run over anybody."

The Hawkeyes, with an able multiple offense, finished seventh in the Big Ten race last season with 2-3-1.

Distance Runner Wins, Then Dies

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Wu Ching-Chang, 20, collapsed as he won a 10,000-meter race at Hsing-yang in southern Formosa Monday and died later in a hospital.

He was one of three runners in the event.

As he breasted the tape the winner, he fell to the ground in a coma and never recovered consciousness.

Reserve Linemen Impress OSU Pilot

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio State Coach Woody Hayes says three sophomore linemen are forcing him to revise his pre-season prediction that the Buckeyes would lack line depth this fall.

Woody says he is getting more help than he anticipated from reserves Dick Shafrath, left tackle from Wooster; Dan James, center from Cincinnati; and Ernie Spychalski, right guard from Toledo.

quist, 290-pound left guard, left end Jim Gibbons and Dobrino were starters last season. Bloomquist was hospitalized with an infection early in fall practice.

Two sophomores apparently will get the starting call, 210-pound fullback John Nocera of Youngstown, Ohio, and Huge Drake, 205, Shenandoah, Iowa, at right guard.

Iowa's schedule has six home games in a nine-game season, but Evashevski points out the three road games are "the babies we got to win." They are Big Ten starts against Indiana, Purdue and Minnesota. At home, the Hawkeyes meet Oregon State, Wisconsin, Hawaii, Michigan, Ohio State and Notre Dame.

International League Starting Playoff Series

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Rochester's Red Wings begin defense of their title tonight against Miami while pennant-winner Toronto plays Montreal in opening games of the International League's playoff semifinals.

The Red Wings, who were runners-up in this season's pennant race, and the third place Marlins play the first three games of their best-of-seven series at Rochester. The remaining games will be played at Miami.

Toronto, bucking a five-year jinx that has knocked out the regular season champion in the play-offs, is at home for the first two games of its series with fourth-place Montreal. The next three games shift to Montreal.

Paul Brown In No Hurry To Trim Squad

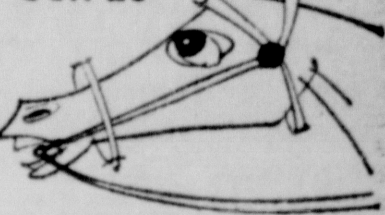

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Browns must trim at least 10 men from their present 45-player roster by Sept. 30 when they play their league opener in Chicago against the Cardinals, but Coach Paul Brown isn't in a hurry to wield the pruning knife.

The loss of all four exhibition games indicates the Browns have some problems to work out. True, they lost four out of five practice games and the College All-Star game last year and still won the National Football League title. But this year quarterback Otto Graham isn't coming out of retirement as he did last year about this time. Vito (Babe) Parilli demonstrated ed in the 17-0 loss at Detroit last week that he's not ready to take over from Graham. His two years away from the game in military service appear to have made him throwing rusty, and that has helped to make him jittery.

George Ratterman, who watched Graham from the bench for most of the last four seasons, will be at quarterback for Cleveland Saturday night when they play the Detroit Lions again in the Akron Rubber Bowl.

Texas Eastern helps put the zip in a zipper

TEXAS EASTERN SERVES THE COMPANIES THAT SERVE YOU

Coils of certain metals from which zipper parts are cut are first annealed in natural gas-fired furnaces. Natural gas is supplied the three Meadville, Pennsylvania, plants of Talon, Inc., by United Natural Gas Company, a customer of Texas Eastern.

Texas Eastern transports natural gas from the Southwest to perform a vital function in the manufacture of zippers made by Talon, Inc. For a zipper to do its job, its metal parts must be tough and pliable. To achieve this, in the case of certain alloys, the metal is first annealed (softened) in natural gas-fired furnaces before it is processed into zipper parts. Talon uses natural gas because it permits accurate and more uniform control of the higher temperatures required in this annealing operation. Talon also uses natural gas to fire the boilers that provide steam and heat for its three Meadville plants, because gas is clean, uniform in quality and can be automatically controlled.

Glancing Over The 1956 Tigers

The following is the second of a series of articles on the boys who will represent the Circleville High School Tigers on the gridiron this fall, starting against Athens next Friday night.

These articles, which will continue through Friday's issue, were written by Ralph Starkey of The Herald staff, former co-captain of the West Virginia University Mountaineers and an honorable mention tackle on many All-American eleven. In the opening article yesterday, Starkey wrote about the Tiger ends.

Today, he takes an experienced glance at the Tiger tackles. The second article follows:

With a split-T offense such as the Tigers are going to employ again this year, the tackles are a rough and tough game, will be strong contenders for starting berths throughout the season.

THE 1956 tackles show good attitude and a strong desire to win. What they actually need is a couple of games under their belt.

Man for man data:

STUCKER, Ronald, 17, 5-8, 172, senior... didn't see too much action last year...has size and good speed...needs a little more work on blocking...could be a mainstay in the Tiger forward wall...presently working out at right tackle...

LEMLEY, Larry, 17, 6 ft., 170, senior... switched from end to tackle because of lack of speed...has a good attitude...works hard...a strong and straight-away type player...will see a lot of action this fall...a probable starter...

DAWSON, Kendall, 16, 6-2, 175, junior... one of the strongest boys on the squad...up from the reserves where he played a defensive guard...needs to improve offensively...will play a lot of defense...

MCABEE, Doug, 16, 5-8, 155, junior... not too light, but lacks speed...a strong boy...could

World Series Due To Begin In Some National Loop Park

NEW YORK (AP)—The World Series is officially scheduled to open Oct. 3 in the National League park—but it might be a bit later if the NL can't decide which park.

Commissioner Ford Frick set the date for the 1956 classic after a 90-minute discussion with representatives of the pennant contenders in both leagues Monday.

The first two games will be played in the National League park, with the series then shifting to the American League park for the next three if needed in the best-of-seven championship. If more games are necessary, they'll be played in the National League park.

Ticket prices, the same as last year and including federal but not local taxes, are $10 for a box seat, $7 reserved, $2 bleachers and $4 for standing room.

All games will start at 1 p.m. local time, except on Sunday in New York, when the start will be 2 p.m.

The only problem at the moment is the National League pennant winner. It could be Milwaukee, Brooklyn or Cincinnati. And a two-team or three-team playoff may be needed to decide. Under NL rules, a two-team tie for first place means a best-of-three playoff. A three-way tie calls for a double elimination playoff—which could drag on for five days.

Frick, noting the possibility of a tie, said there will be a one-day break between the end of the playoff and start of the series, unless the final playoff game is played in the winner's park. Then the series will begin the day after the playoff.

If either Milwaukee or Cincinnati wins the pennant, there will be a day's travel time when the series shifts from one park to the other. If Brooklyn wins, and presumably then will face the New York Yankees, no travel time will be needed.

The Yankees need only a combination of eight victories and Cleveland or Chicago defeats to clinch the American League flag. Cleveland and Chicago currently are tied for second place.

Basilio Sure He Will Win Over Saxton

SYRACUSE (AP)—Welterweight champions have been playing with the 147-pound crown as if it was a bean bag for the last couple of years. In four of the last five title fights, the challenger has won.

Carmen Basilio, dethroned by Johnny Saxton some six months ago, firmly believes the crown will bounce his way once more here Wednesday night when he meets Saxton again.

"He's had it long enough," said the 29-year-old Basilio after finishing up his training with gym work Monday. "He was very lucky to grab it in Chicago March 14. If the referee had let me work inside I would still be the champion. This time it will be different."

Despite Basilio's optimism, the odds favoring him dropped from 8-5 to 7-5 and slightly under to day. It would not be surprising if the 26-year-old Saxton went into the ring as a slight choice. In their last fight, Basilio was a 2-1 favorite.

'Muscle Men' Hold Key To Redleg Finish

NEW YORK (AP)—The key to success for Cincinnati's Redlegs in the telescoping National League pennant chase is the work of their "muscle men."

The Redlegs resume their league battles today against New York's Giants after a three-game losing skid to third place. Nobody knows the problem better than Manager Birdie Tebbets.

"We have got to get some help from our big guys," he said. The big guys include sluggers Ted Kluszewski and Gus Bell who produced little during the disastrous three games with St. Louis.

"That's our trouble," Tebbets said. "No other reason. The guys who are supposed to drive in the runs aren't driving them in."

"A pitcher can't hold those two forever. I know they're due to come out of it."

Tebbetts nominated Larry Jansen to start against the Giants today, with Joe Nuxhall to open the concluding game Wednesday. It'll be the first time Jansen has

The first two games will be played in the National League park, with the series then shifting to the American League park for the next three if needed in the best-of-seven championship. If more games are necessary, they'll be played in the National League park.

Ticket prices, the same as last year and including federal but not local taxes, are $10 for a box seat, $7 reserved, $2 bleachers and $4 for standing room.

All games will start at 1 p.m. local time, except on Sunday in New York, when the start will be 2 p.m.

The only problem at the moment is the National League pennant winner. It could be Milwaukee, Brooklyn or Cincinnati. And a two-team or three-team

World Series Due To Begin In Some National Loop Park

NEW YORK (AP)—The World Series is officially scheduled to open Oct. 3 in the National League park—but it might be a bit later if the NL can't decide which park.

Commissioner Ford Frick set the date for the 1956 classic after a 90-minute discussion with representatives of the pennant contenders in both leagues Monday.
